

'Clothing from my country tells a story of national heritage'

- National costume is a sublimated reflection of folk traditions, folk beliefs and esthetic understandings of a people.
- Macedonian folk costumes reached their most developed stage in the second half of the 19th century.
- The costumes were divided according to the occasion:
  - costumes for working days and
  - formal costumes.

Macedonian costumes

- ✓ Common to all Macedonian costumes is the representation of red, black and white colors translated into geometric shapes.
